

APPENDIX O

TROPHIES, 157TH INFANTRY, C. N. G.¹

THE AMERICAN LEGION TROPHY

Awarded annually to the winning communications platoon of any headquarters company or battery of the Colorado National Guard in the American Legion Communications Platoon Competition held during the annual field training camp.

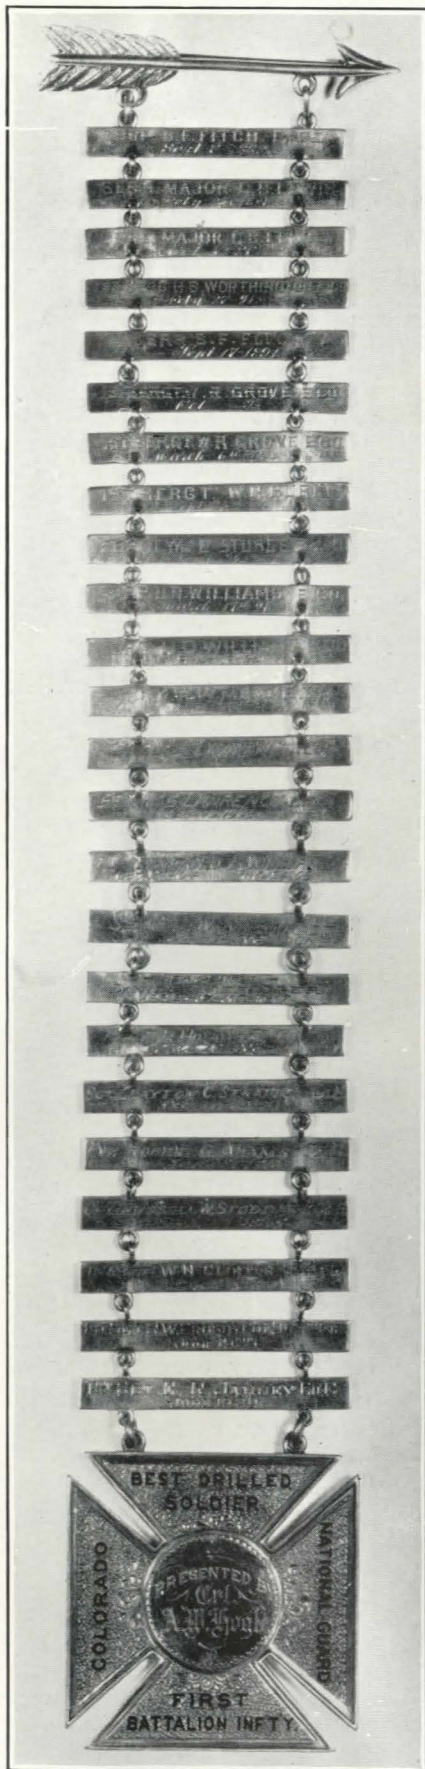

¹ For a full description of the competitions for which these trophies are awarded see General Orders No. 1, Headquarters 157th Infantry, April 21, 1934.

THE JOHN S. STEWART POST NO. 1, VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS TROPHY. For competition among the Rifle Companies of the 157th Infantry.

THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION TROPHY. Presented by the Colorado Society Sons of the American Revolution for competition among the Machine Gun Companies of the 157th Infantry.

HOGLE TROPHY—Presented by Col. Austin Hogle to the best drilled soldier in the First Battalion Infantry, Colorado National Guard, in 1886. Now competed for annually by the enlisted men of the 157th (1st Colorado) Infantry, the successor to the old First Battalion of Infantry. A gold bar with winner's name engraved thereon is suspended from the arrow pin each year.

THE JOHN R. NANKIVELL MEMORIAL TROPHY

Awarded annually to the most proficient unit of the 157th Infantry for the training year.